DENVER BRONCOS TO VISIT COMMERCE CITY TO THANK FANS FOR SUPPORT

DENVER – The Denver Broncos Football Club will visit Commerce City on Wednesday, Sept. 9, to thank fans for their support of the team. Residents are invited to Pioneer Park, located on the southeast corner of 60th Avenue and Holly Street from 3 p.m. to 4:30p.m. to meet Broncos Cheerleaders, Miles the Mascot and Broncos alumni, see the team's Super Bowl trophies and enjoy other activities.

"I've always been amazed and humbled by the tremendous support we receive from our fans," said Broncos owner Pat Bowlen. "We know that when we take the field, we represent not just the Denver Broncos organization but the entire city of Denver, state of Colorado, Rocky Mountain region and other proud citizens of Broncos Country all around the world."

"I wish we could bring the entire team, but the players and coaches are all busy getting ready for the season. Hopefully the folks will still enjoy what we can do this time of year and know how much we appreciate them."

The event will also feature the presentation of a Broncos Country flag to Mayor Paul Natale. Another flag will be on hand for fans to sign, which the team will take back to INVESCO Field where it will be displayed for years to come.

The event is free to the public and will also feature autographs, photo opportunities, games and a raffle for Broncos prizes.
